

What You Need to Know About Book Corner

Book Corner appears on the Now Hear This page of VFW magazine occasionally as space permits. Therefore it is extremely limited in the number of books that can be listed. Here is what you need to know about what is and what is not included:

- Book Corner* does not list fiction books.
- Book Corner* does not list personal memoirs or first-person accounts.
- Book Corner* does not list self-published or vanity press books. Books must be published by a nationally recognized publisher.
- Book Corner* does not list books on individual units.
- Book Corner* does not list books unless they have been reviewed by the magazine staff.
- Book Corner* was not created nor is it reserved for VFW members. Membership in the VFW has absolutely no bearing on the selection process. What appears in other magazines has no bearing on the selection process.
- Book Corner* lists books that comprehensively cover little-known or neglected wars, campaigns, battles and terrorism actions.
- Book Corner* also lists books that contribute to a better understanding of veterans issues (including memorials, battlefield parks, etc.) and patriotism.
